Commata Worksheet

Edit the following sentences by adding commata where they are needed and removing unnecessary commata. If a sentence is correct, write “OK” behind it.

1. Using her directions, Paula found the location of the party.

2. Salad, pizza, macaroni and cheese and strawberry yogurt were on the lunch menu.

3. We trekked the path, which followed the Shenandoah River.

4. The movie was a disaster, and a failure.

5. Pepsi and Coca-Cola are in competition, and a clear winner currently is difficult to decipher.

6. My brother, Benjamin, gave my other brother, Pete, a book for his birthday.

7. Of the three my favorite is the last option.

8. Nan’s vacation in Ocean City, Maryland was the highlight of her summer.

9. Jon was born on November 28, 1945 in Connecticut.

10. My class schedule next semester includes biology, world history, child psychology, and British literature.