End Punctuation Worksheet

Supply end punctuation — period, question mark, or exclamation point — as needed in the following sentences

1. Is there truth to the rumor

2. Backing away from the guard dog, Phil eased into his car

3. Will there be snow this weekend, because it’s warmer than usual

4. Robin could hear Batman yelling, “To the Batcave”

5. This is the best birthday party that I’ve ever experienced

6. Another route may lead to disaster

7. Edgar Allan Poe questioned the sanity of many

8. The children’s book Whistle for Willie is a classic

9. Ursula can bake for the fundraiser, right

10. Merry Christmas, Santa