Run-on Sentences Worksheet

Revise any run-on sentences using a technique that you find effective.
If a sentence is correct, write “OK” after it.

1. Tie-dye clothing peaked in the 1960s and it had made a comeback recently.

2. Raymond was loved by everyone, and he returned their affection, and his parents lived across the street, and his brother lived with his parents.

3. “Chocolate makes me jittery,” commented William, “and I don’t like that.”

4. A petition was created to make the Monday after the Super Bowl a national holiday, because too many employees are unproductive in their workplaces on that day.

5. Cora swept, Zach vacuumed.

6. Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, yet many skip it.

7. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year’s Day have combined to create one long holiday.

8. Brandon froze so Ron gave the speech instead.