

February 2019

SEEKING TRUTH

A Monthly QEP Newsletter

LILAC RESEARCH

Lord Fairfax is participating in the Learning Information Literacy Across the Curriculum research study. The purpose is to determine the relationship between what students are taught about library and online research and how students actually conduct such research. Faculty will play a key role in recruiting eligible students. Stacey Ellis will be in contact regarding student recruitment in specific classes.

ADJUNCT TEACHING ACADEMY

The Teaching Excellence Committee will be hosting the Adjunct Teaching Academy on Saturday, March 23 from 9am-1pm on the Fauquier Campus. Adjuncts are eligible for a $50 stipend.

An interactive session on Information Literacy will be presented during the teaching academy and will be an opportunity for cross-disciplinary discussion of Information Literacy implementation.

RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

The QEP Leadership Team is recruiting judges for the Student Research Symposium. The Symposium will be held on Thursday, April 11 from 5-7pm on both the Fauquier and Middletown Campuses.

Please contact one of the following individuals to volunteer:
Kim Lewis- Fauquier- All Disciplines
Stacey Ellis- Middletown Humanities/Business/Technology
Brenda Wiens- Middletown- Science and Health Professions

INFORMATION LITERACY LINKS AND RESOURCES

- LILAC Youtube Channel: Research Samples:
<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCvIINCZ-tlvcRybEqxbL-sww>
- American Library Association: Evaluating Information:
<https://libguides.ala.org/InformationEvaluation/Infolit>
- LFCC Library LibGuides on IL and Citations:
<http://lfcc.libguides.com/InfoLiteracy>
<http://lfcc.libguides.com/c.php?g=122018&p=795937>

